

SERVICES

SettlePou's Litigation Section has earned a formidable reputation through consistent, successful resolution of a wide variety of litigation matters. The firm's litigators assist their clients, both large and small, in navigating the options available for conflict resolution. SettlePou's Litigation Section has particular expertise in the following areas:

- * Litigation Mitigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution
- * Appellate
- * Business Litigation
- * Condemnation Law
- * Financial Institution Litigation
- * Legislative and Regulatory Affairs
- * Real Estate Litigation

EXPERIENCE

SettlePou's attorneys handle litigation in all State and Federal courts of Texas and throughout the United States. In addition, SettlePou has provided successful representation for clients before the legislative and executive branches of Texas as well as local governments including municipalities, commissions and councils. Our depth of experience translates into solid counsel to our clients in all conflict resolution options available.

Due to our solid reputation and expertise, SettlePou attorneys from the Litigation Section are regularly invited to speak at continuing education activities in the industry. While our expertise and success in litigation matters parallels larger firms, the cost of our services does not. Our litigators are effective and efficient, which results in good news for our clients' bottom line.
