

Contracts

SettlePou's Health Law group drafts and advises its clients relating to a wide array of contracts that confront physician practices, including physician employment agreements, management contracts, hospital contracts, third party payor agreements, royalty agreements, service contracts, lending related agreements, real estate leases and agreements, non-compete agreements, and equipment leases.