

Real Estate

SettlePou's Health Law group works with the Real Estate section of the firm to address any real estate issues of a physician practice or physician owned businesses, including creating legal entities, drafting purchase and sale transaction, negotiating real estate leases, preparing joint venture agreements, property development agreements, and advising on survey and title insurance matters.