

Technology

SettlePou's Health Care group assists medical and dental practices with various technology related issues for a practice or provider owned entities, including preparation of non-disclosure agreements, preparation of assignment of invention agreements for employees, application for trademarks, and development of privacy policies and license agreements for web sites. The Health Care group also works with outside attorneys to coordinate patent application and prosecution.