

Real Estate

SettlePou's Private Business group works with the Real Estate section of the firm to address any real estate issues of a business, including creating legal entities, drafting purchase and sale transaction, negotiating real estate leases, preparing joint venture agreements, property development agreements, and advising on survey and title insurance matters.